Dev Sol Claims Responsibility for Shooting in Turkey

Dev Sol, Turkey's most dangerous urban terrorist group, claimed responsibility for the assassination this morning of an American contract employee in Incirlik, according to press. The group reportedly said that the killing was in response to the US-led allied bombing raids on Iraq and that the victim had worked for CIA.

PIRA Claims Responsibility for Mortar Attack at Whitehall

This morning three mortar rounds were fired from a van parked near the British Defense Ministry in Whitehall. Two rounds exploded outside the Foreign Office and a third exploded in the garden of the Prime Minister's residence at No. 10 Downing Street. Prime Minister Major and the War Cabinet, who were meeting at No. 10 at the time, escaped unharmed, but two police officers outside the residence suffered minor injuries. The Provisional Irish Republican Army (PIRA) has claimed responsibility for the attack.
